

Community Support Is A Must

Without the community's support this yearbook would not be possible. The Aerie staff of Richard Winn Academy would like to take time out to thank every business and every person who contributed to the production of our book. Advertisers and patrons are the backbone of this book and we are grateful for every person's support.      by Beth Douglass