Senior-led Team Captures Hearts of Fans

EVERY BASKET COUNTS!

The four seniors, Jack Livings, Michael Dickerson, Ryan Bond, and Cal Caldwell, dominated play on the '91-'92 varsity squad. Led by All-State and North All-Star player Jack Livings, this year's team played hard and competitive. Despite the fact that they did not have a winning record, the boys did have success through experience and teamwork. The team consisted of 10 players who lacked consistency in play at times, but, when their game was on, were "untouchable".

With Michael Dickerson directing the offense as point guard, the team played with determination and desire. Despite the score at the end of many games, the Eagles always came out on top in the hearts of the loyal fans who followed them.

Ryan Bond, senior guard, shows extreme effort as he attempts a jump shot while being closely checked by a Catawba opponent.

Matt and Jack work their way toward the basket in anticipation of the rebound. What goes up must come down — right, boys?
