

The RWA faculty, staff, and administration are definitely unique. They all work diligently for the good of each student and for the future of Richard Winn.

Our teachers are dedicated to the tasks of instilling knowledge and teaching not only ABC's, but also basic morals and values. The Board of Directors, led by Chairman Mark Mills, and Headmaster Carroll Taylor, formulate policies, carry out the day-to-day functions, and look ahead to the future of our school.

Webster's Dictionary defines a gold mine as a "source of something very valuable or profitable." We are indeed fortunate to have this group of genuine, caring individuals as a GOLD MINE from which our students can obtain invaluable information and lessons in life.
