

ON YOUR MARK. The J.V. Football squad breaks through the banner before a big game. Although the team was young, they had a very promising and winning season.

J.V.'s HAVE CLASS

Matthew Wagaman and some other offensive linemen are ready to block for the eighth grade quarterback, Julian Hamilton, and their other team members in the Eagle back-field.

JV Football 1994-1995

	RWA	OPPONENT
Catawba	22	6
King	6	14
Catawba	20	8
King	0	16
Roy Hudgens	16	0
Jeff Davis	38	8

1994 JV FOOTBALL TEAM — First row (L-R): Beth Cook — manager, Ryan Klinger, J.D. Hodges, Locke Frazier, Willy Pope, Ward Coleman, Russ Brown, Ryan Johnson, Logan Ray, Keith Carter, Bobby Boulware, Billy Carter — assistant coach; Second row: Jae Mattox, Joe Brown, Wes Melvin, Billy Boulware, Kevin McDaniel, Philip Wilkins, Terry Kelly, Michael Anderson, and Richard Hodges — assistant coach; Third row: Mike Robinson — head coach, Justin Wilson, Heath Caldwell, Matthew Wagaman, Matthew Wilkes, Tee LaCons, Daniel Cook, Joseph Cook, Tyler Porter, and Lee Shannon; Fourth row: Chris Stillwell, Chris Oxner, Mack Miles, Johnny Ray Proctor, Brad Caulder, Ben Hinnant, Julian Hamilton, and Brent Branham

Coaches Richard Hodges, Billy Carter, and Mike Robinson watch the game from the sideline. These men were the brains behind a fine 4 and 2 season.