

IF YOU'RE HAPPY, CLAP YOUR HANDS!

ONE LAST TIME. After the final game of the season, Martha Stevenson affectionately hugs senior Ginny Clowney. Not only was it the final game for the football team, but it was also the last time Ginny would be a high school cheerleader.

FLASHING SMILES. At a pep rally juniors Frances Brown and Suzanne Kirby stir up excitement which spreads throughout the student body. The cheerleaders hosted a pep rally for all of the home games during sixth period in order to boost everyone's spirit.

COMING THROUGH. In cooperation with the J.V. Cheerleaders, the Varsity Cheerleaders display a banner for the football players to break through. The J.V. Cheerleaders were given the opportunity to participate at each pep rally with the Varsity squad.
