

These excelling students received awards for having the highest average in sixth grade subjects: Wendy Gwynn — math, Jae Mattox — social studies and science, Philip Wilkins — language and social studies, Vanessa Guy — spelling, reading, language, social studies, and math, Clarke Doty — social studies.

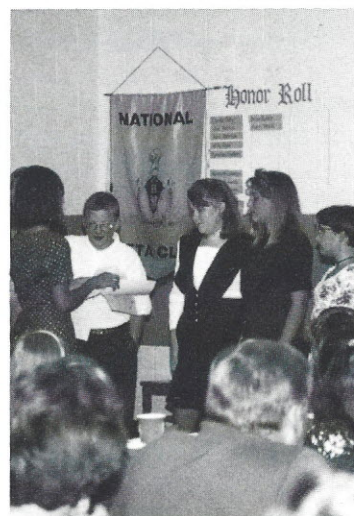

The following students were acknowledged for having the highest average for subjects in the eighth grade: Mandi McGinnis — Algebra I and earth science, Chris Oxner — eighth grade math, Hydrick Harden — English and S.C. history, Chris Spires — Algebra I, and Bryant Gaddy — Algebra I.

These freshmen received awards for the best overall average: Missy Lutz — English, Jan Faile — physical science, Elaine Mann — world geography, geometry, and French I, Missy McGinnis — Spanish I and physical science, and Ashley Stephenson — English.

The following students had the highest average for each subject in the tenth grade: Krystal Weed — French II, Andy Zelnar — applied math, Charlie Hodges — humanities, Gini Startzman — Biology I, and Katie Harwell — Algebra II.

The following students were inducted into the Beta Clubs by their presiding officers: Senior Beta Club — Laura Langdale; Junior Beta Club — Baetti Smith, Kim Jones, Candace Oxner, and Billy Boulware (not pictured).

Frances Ladd, President of the Jr. Beta Club, gives certificates to Billy Boulware, Kim Jones, Baetti Smith, and Candace Oxner. These students maintained a 90 or above average for the semester.

For the eleventh grade, Kerri Weed received awards for having the highest average in chemistry and U.S. history while Hayley Driggers had the highest average in English III and U.S. history.