

SPIRIT
WEEK
'94

An Extracurricular

COPYCATS. Showing their spirit for Twin Day, the Varsity Cheerleaders dress alike, too. They organized the week and got everyone excited.

DRESSED TO KILL. Matthew Wagaman, one of many participants in Camouflage Day, shows his spirit by camouflaging his head. This was a chance when the hat rule was relaxed to allow students to express their spirit.

DESIGNER WEAR, BY WHO? Nichole Vanderford smiles for the camera while donning her tacky designer attire. She was among many who did a super job dressing for the occasion.

A GROUP EFFORT. These sixth graders really get into the school spirit by participating in the Hippie/Neer Day. The majority of their class dressed up for each special day to show their spirit.
