

E π travaganza

GOING FOR THE GOLD. The "Spirit Wells," sponsored by the Aerie staff, were a main attraction for all grades. K-5, determined to win, is shown putting more pennies in their well. However, the Juniors outdid everyone to win the competition.

RAH! RAH! RAH! Heather Gilbert, a kindergartener, shows her school spirit by dressing as a cheerleader on Blue and Gold Day.

KING FOR A DAY. Senior Will Montgomery basks in the glory of being crowned Homecoming King. The senior football player collecting the most votes (pennies) from the student body wins the title each year.

WE'VE GOT S-P-I-R-I-T! The JV Cheerleaders lead the crowd during the Homecoming Pep Rally. These energetic young ladies were in charge of "firing up" the players and fans for the big game.

