

MISS RWA 1995

Under the leadership of the Senior Class sponsor, Mrs. Vickie Robinson, the seniors put together a spectacular evening of pageantry and entertainment. Eighteen girls in grades eight through twelve enjoyed participating in this memorable event. The contestants competed in casual and formal wear. Senior class president, Hayley Driggers, welcomed everyone and introduced the Mistress of Ceremonies, Mrs. Joy Taylor. As always, Mrs. Ellen Nicholson and her high school boys' chorus provided entertainment for the event.

Judges for the pageant were Steve Gambrell, Paula Khoe, and Sandra Kaiser; the auditor was Mrs. Susan Young. As the night came to an end, Miss RWA 1994, Gini Startzman, relinquished the crown to Katie Zelnar. After the pageant the contestants were invited to refreshments in the Fine Arts Room. Truly, this was "A Dream Come True" for all the winners.

AND THE WINNER IS. Katie Zelnar, a junior, walks down the ramp after being crowned Miss RWA 1995.
