Students returned from spring break reshed and ready for the active month of april. Prom Promise activities got underway, cluding a balloon launch headlined by awn Mercer. After the balloon launch, the students signed the promise. The junior class aged a mock trial similar to a real trial on the charge of DUI. The prom itself took place April 13. All the juniors and seniors had a monderful evening. Easter Holidays provided welcome break after the prom. Spring sports were literally in full swing! The baseball, softball, and golf teams continued their winning ways throughout April. The tennis team, meanwhile, finished their regular season, but lost in the first round of the state play-offs. The lower school students were busy as well. The 3rd grade music program was on April 21. The 2nd-6th graders started B-team basketball. April was an active month for everyone at RWA.
