ENJOYMENT AT LAST. The Juniors take time out from dancing to pose, as a group, for a picture. They somehow managed not to "kill" each other while decorating for the prom and ended up having a great time that evening.

SERVING IT UP. Missy McGinnis pours another cup of punch while Marion Sprott and Martha Stevenson chat with Miss Penny Renwick. These sophomores were serving girls for the evening.

STRIKING A POSE. Senior Kerri Weed and her date, John Martin, take time from looking at the memory books and dancing to smile for a picture. They were just one of the many couples who enjoyed the evening.

MAKING A BREATHER. Paul Melton, Krystal Weed, and Elaine Mann look on as they sit at a dance to catch their breath and relax.
