

FRESHMEN

What was the worst thing you ever got in trouble for at school and what was your punishment?

Michelle Quinn — "In the fifth grade Baetti, Katherine, and I were sent to the office for talking too much in class. Mr. Taylor slammed the paddle on his desk. We all started crying, and then Mr. Taylor told us not to talk as much in class."

Frances Ladd — "The worst thing that I've ever gotten trouble for at school was for disrupting class by chasing Bert Rexrode around the classroom because he had my homework. I was sent out of the room until I could behave myself."

Matthew Wilkes — "Stealing candy from a candy machine in the gym. Me, Billy and Bobby Boulware, and someone else were sent to the office and were fussed at by Mr. Taylor."

Michael Anderson — "Wearing cut off shorts to school; I got sent home to change."

Sally Hinnant — "I had to sit in the hall when I was in kindergarten because I wouldn't color my picture."

HE SAID THAT SHE SAID THAT ... During what was supposed to be P.E., the freshmen take time out to gossip. On days when home basketball games were scheduled, P.E. classes were cancelled.

STAYING ALIVE! On Hippy Day, during Homecoming week J.T. Crossland shows style and spunk. Hippy day is generally the most popular of the Spirit Days.

Class of ... 99

GIMME SOME SKIN! Matthew Wilkes is congratulated by JV teammate Trey Fletcher. Matthew and three other freshmen joined the varsity team at the end of their JV season.