

RUDOLPH THE RED NOSED REINDEER. The Lower School really adds to the show with their rendition of Rudolph. Is it possible that any of those antlers are real?

JUMP FOR JOY. Freshman J.T. Crossland, in costume, takes a flying leap across the stage, much to the delight of the audience. The Middle School Chorus sang "Grandma Got Run Over By A Reindeer" and brought down the house.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT. Senior Charle Hodges and freshman J.T. Crossland entertain the audience with their part in the program. The entire chorus practiced five days a week and put many long hours into their performances.

ANGELS WE HAVE HEARD ON HIGH. The angelic-looking Middle School Chorus performs a favorite Christmas carol. Their performance was enjoyable and drew quite a crowd.
