

WANDERING A S H I N G T O N

READY & WAITING. Braving the cold early morning weather, Emily Mills and her mom, along with the other 93 middle school students and chaperones, eagerly await the train's arrival. Despite being chilly, everyone seemed ready to go!

SPACE CADETS. Most of the middle school students stop in front of this huge space mural at the National Air and Space Museum long enough for a picture. Then the group split up into smaller numbers to tour the interesting exhibits.

NOT AGAIN! Sixth grader Callie Ladd protests having to pose for another picture while teacher-mom Martha Ladd takes the picture of Callie and buddy Elizabeth Schachner overlooking the reflecting pool and the Washington Monument.
