

HEAD OF THE CLASS. Gini Startzman, graduating at the top of the class, gives her Valedictory speech to her classmates and the audience. On graduation night, Gini was one of the many who received awards and scholarships.

A PROUD PARENT. Mother Harvey Brown takes a moment to smile for the camera as she prepares her daughter Frances Brown for the baccalaureate services. This was a very special time for mothers and daughters alike as they were filled with many different emotions.

ONE LAST TIME. During the services which were held at the ARP Church, the seniors join the chorus in singing "Majesty and Glory" for their final time.

AN EMOTIONAL EXPERIENCE. With the diploma in her hand, graduate McCullough Caldwell excitedly embraces her mother Bobbie Caldwell. This proved to be a very emotional time for all graduates as they prepare to go to college or work.
