

GOOD D.

After making an impressive tackle, Paul Melton gives teammate Joe Renwick a high five. These guys were quick to congratulate and encourage each other and their teammates to keep team morale and spirits high.

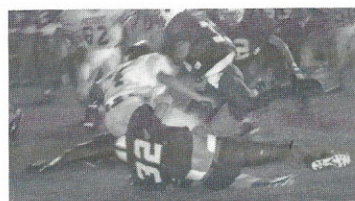

WATER ANYONE?

Coleman Startsman and Katherine Brown hustle off the field after supplying the Eagles with water. These girls provided the squad with gatorade during every time-out.

GOING BALD.

As the crowd watches, Coach David Porter is the first to rub his bald head. Coaches Porter, Bill Melton, and Todd Robinson all shaved their heads after the team went undefeated and won the Championship.

NOT THIS TIME.

As Joe Renwick makes a great tackle against the Patrick Henry Patriots, he forces an opponent to fumble the ball. The Eagles won their fifth game of the season against the Patriots by a score of 52-7.

WINNER'S CIRCLE

After a playoff game, Coach David Porter gives the team a hand while congratulating them on another victory. Despite the Eagles great performance, they still had to face Dorchester in the Championship.
