

QUEEN OF THE COURT. Senior Julie Allen starts the game with a tip to teammate Edie Pope. Julie, dominating the inside game, averaged 18 pts. her final year and scored over 1000 pts. in her RWA career.

LEADERS OF THE PACK. Head Coach Sam Copeland poses for a quick picture with assistant coaches Wendy McDonald and Joe Spires. The coaches seemed to be all smiles after the victory over Carolina Academy.

“My memory of this year’s basketball season is not of just one experience. When I think of our season, the closeness and comraderie that we all shared is what I remember; it is a feeling I will carry for life.” — Gini Startzman

“I’m not sure what memory stands out to me the most — Either the game we lost in the first round of the play-offs or the practice I dislocated my knee.” — Lindsey Bonds

THE 1995 - 1996 RWA VARSITY GIRLS BASKETBALL TEAM

TAKING IT UP STRONG. After sitting out most of her freshman and sophomore years and undergoing knee surgery, Caroline Carter works hard to regain her starting position and is reliable when taking it to the hoop. At the end of the season, Caroline was awarded with All-Conference honors.
