WORKING TOGETHER. While point guard Travis Simpson and forward Ken Hornsby prepare to rebound, center Jonathan Myers scores two from the outside. An excellent example of how to work together!

SOARING HIGH. With a flick of his wrist, Ken Hornsby takes a shot from the baseline to add two points to the Eagles score. This season Ken stepped up and became a very valuable asset to the team.

DRIBBLE ... DRIBBLE ... PASS
... During an intense game against Cambridge, guard Luke Godwin passes it to Jonathan. The Eagles handily defeated the smaller Cambridge team and chalked up another conference win.

SWEET JUMPER. Team leader Travis Simpson pulls up on a Cambridge player and hits a sweet jumper. During the '95-'96 season, Travis demonstrated his athletic ability by averaging fifteen points a game.

OFFENSE WINS GAMES; DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS. At a home game against Long Cane the Eagles display their outstanding defense. RWA held the Cavaliers to only 57 points while their offense produced 61 points.
