

PACKING A PUNCH. Junior slugger Caroline Wilkins prepares to blast one into the outfield. Caroline was a force at the plate all year, finishing the season with a .278 batting average.

REACHING OUT. Sub-freshman Reid Patrick reaches out to receive the throw from the field. Although Reid was only an eighth-grader, she was a solid first baseman for this year's team.

GOOD EYE! Sub-freshman Coleman Startsman watches the ball closely to wait for the right pitch. Coleman made the right move at bat this year, finishing the season with a .308 batting average.

SPORTSMANSHIP COUNTS. After a tough game, the team lines up to shake hands with King Academy. They proved that although we Eagles play to win, we also have good attitudes.

