

POISED AND READY. As he checks the runner on first base, pitcher Travis Kingsmore prepares to release one of his fastballs. Travis finished the season with five total wins as a starting pitcher.

BIG-TIME BATTER. Designated hitter Chad Mobley, a sophomore, prepares to rip another ball the outfield. Chad, a rookie, finished the season with a .405 batting average and as an All-Region Player.

ACE OF BASE. Freshman Julian Hamilton anticipates the throw from home as a player from King attempts to steal third. The Eagles outscored the Knights 7-6.

KING OF THE MOUNTAIN. Junior pitching ace Travis Simpson delivers another strike while first baseman Joseph Cope is ready to grab anything that might come his way.

“Winning the State Championship was a great relief. The weight of the world had been lifted off my shoulders. It was a humbling experience. I thought about all the times we had been there and lost.”

—Todd Robinson

“Winning the State Championship was great. It was just like I had imagined the other three years.” — Ben Porter
