PUPPY LOVE. Max Hazen puts a friendly arm around his "gal-friend" Chelsey Ray. With both mothers teaching RWA kindergarten classes, these two were right at "home" in this setting.

READY FOR FUN. Several of RWA's four and five year olds wait their turn at the clown ring toss game. This was one of the many fun classroom activities that took place during the PTO's annual Harvest Festival.

SEALED WITH A KISS. Amanda Owens and Ashley Bedwell cheerfully stamp the Valentine cards they made in class for their parents. As a part of their Post Office field trip, all the five year olds bought stamps at the Post Office window and dropped these cards into the mail slot to be delivered by the mail carrier.
