

PREPARATION. Blair Feaster, a sophomore, warms up before her big match. Blair played at the number two seed and added to the consistency of the team.

SWINGIN' THRU. Number one seed Jen Robinson, a junior, follows through with her forehand warm up strokes before playing a match with Cambridge. Jen's experience as a veteran player provided leadership for this young squad.

COMING AT CHA. Freshman Vanessa Guy watches as her backhand stroke heads towards her opponent's court. Vanessa moved up from the J.V. tennis team this year to fill the big gaps left by the '96 graduation.

EYE ON THE TARGET. Playing as the team's number three seed, sophomore Katherine Brown added experience and enthusiasm to the young team.

ON THE BALL. As the youngest member of the tennis team, eighth grader Kerri Varnadore brings her racket head high to follow through on deep baseline hit. Kerri filled the number six spot on the team, moving up from the J.V. team.

