

DESIRE! The Eagles have a "quick get together" as they huddle up to encourage each other to play their best. Regrouping and teamwork paved the way for the team's successful season.

A BLOCKING BONANZA. Leah Branham fades away as she and teammate Frances Ladd block a hit by conference opponent Greenwood Christian. This duo worked well together and were successful in obtaining many side-outs for the Eagles.

THE WRITE STUFF. Statistician Hall Sprott, Stephanie Guy, and clockman Dan Dale intensely watch the court as the Lady Eagles play cross-town rival, Fairfield Central. Hall faithfully followed the team to the many home and away matches, while Mr. Dale was in charge of the scoreboard during home games.

SERVING WITH STYLE. Senior Caroline Carter serves another ball up in a home game against King Academy. At the beginning of the season, Caroline had no volleyball background, but with hard work and dedication she was selected to play in the SCISA All-Star game.

