

DOUBLE DUTY. Callie Ladd dribbles down the baseline and shoots while #13 Mary Startsman goes in for the rebound. These two seventh graders, along with three others did "double duty" by playing on both Jr. High and JV teams.

UNSTOPPABLE. The RWA Eagles are all smiles as they celebrate their victory and claim the title of Tournament Champions. This was the first time in a few years that the JV played in a Tournament but that did not stop them.

SWISH. With a flick of her wrist, freshman Wendy Gwynn puts two more points on the board for RWA. Wendy's excellent shooting ability and her tough defense were a big asset to the '96-'97 JV team.

INTENSITY. Up front, Clarke Doty and Hall Sprott work hard to keep the offense from penetrating, as Reid Patrick and Nicole Collins are guarding their "men". The team's outstanding defense played a big role in their success.

1996-1997 JR. HIGH GIRLS. Standing (L-R): Mary Startsman, Meredith Lyles, Nicole Collins, Callie Ladd, and Hannah Phillips. Kneeling: Emily Young, Brittani Smith, Michelle Mattox, and Ashley Arnette.

A CLEAN BREAK. In a Jr. High game, seventh grader Hannah Phillips takes the ball up the court past her opponents. For her first year on the team, Hannah gained much experience and had a lot of fun in the meantime.
