

COUNT IT. In a home game against Newberry Academy, Junior High player Wylie Clarkson shoots the ball to put the Eagles ahead by 2. Three quarters later the RWA team celebrated their victory.

Huddle Up. The J.V. boys listen carefully as Coach Fran Miller, Coach Marion Fetner, and Coach Bill Berzley explain a play. This superb coaching staff was a valuable asset to the team during the season.

STRIVING FOR THE GOAL

THE FINISHING TOUCH. Sub-freshman Wes Melvin follows through with a free throw, contributing another point to the Eagles' score. Although this was only his first year, Wes proved to be an important part of the team.

IN CONTROL. Earl Ogburn, a freshman, leads the team down the floor for a fast break opportunity. Earl's speed and aggressiveness proved to be a valuable asset to the Eagles.

GO EAGLES!! Jae Mattox leads the team out of the locker room to warm up before a game. They were greeted by a group of spirited and supportive fans.
