

WAITING FOR VICTORY. Coaches Gary Drapeau and Ray Atkerson, along with players Paul and Cory watch as the Eagles penetrate the opponent. The coaches not only shared their knowledge of soccer, but provided much needed support.

HOLD 'EM EAGLES! Mike Schaeffer, Joseph Schachner, and Ben Hinnant surround a Newberry player. These defenders helped contribute to the win against Newberry.

RECORD: 1 - 10

1997 SOCCER TEAM. Standing (L-R): Coach Gary Drapeau, Matt Schaeffer, Chris Spires, Chris Kinard, Jim Edwards, Jesse Pugh, Mike Schaeffer, Stacey Davis, Bubba Pope, Ben Hinnant, and Coach Ray Atkerson. Kneeling: Edward Frazier, J.T. Crossland, Jen Robinson, Justin Swearingen, Cory Shirley, Joseph Schachner, James Leitner, Mac Caldwell. Sitting: Eric Wilson, Berry Mattox, Paul Caldwell, and Candace Oxner. Not Pictured: Ashlyn Tanner, Kristy Oswald, and Nicole Lippert.

THE FEW, THE PROUD. Sixth grader Ashlyn Tanner follows through on a pass to a teammate. Ashlyn, one of the few female athletes on the team, added youth, spunk, and energy to the team.

IN BETWEEN A ROCK AND A HARD PLACE. Junior Jen Robinson fights her way through the defense as Chris Spires comes to her aid. This pair of juniors contributed greatly to the improvement of the team.

RUN, MAC, RUN! With great determination, seventh grader Mac Caldwell sprints to beat his opponent to the ball. Mac was an example of the diverse ages that made up the team.
