

IN FULL SWING. With two strikes on him, Ken Hornsby swings with everything he's got during a play-off game against Avalon. Although Ken was able to put it in play, that wasn't enough as the Eagles fell to Avalon 4 to 1.

ROUNDING THIRD. During a tournament, Coach Billy Keels sends Brent Branham home to score another run for the Eagles. The tournament was held at Central, and it gave the Eagles a chance to play bigger and better teams.

UNLOADING THE PITCH. Pitching ace Travis Simpson hurls another strike across home plate. When resting his pitching arm, Travis' skills were used in the shortstop position.

DOWN AND READY. Behind the plate, senior Ben Porter catches strike three from pitcher Travis Simpson. After starting at catcher for the past six years, Ben will leave a big gap at this position as he graduates from RWA.

GETTING THE SIGN. As sophomore pitching starter Trey Fletcher receives the sign, he gets set to wind up for his next pitch. Trey's swift and accurate arm earned him a spot on the SCISAA All-Star team and All-Region honors.
