

A BOOST UP. Assistant coach Mark Richardson gives first baseman Tyler Porter words of encouragement during a play-off game against Avalon. Coach Richardson's dedication to the Eagles was one reason for the team's success.

1997 BASEBALL TEAM. Back(L-R): Coach Billy Keels, Travis Simpson, Ben Porter, Ken Hornsby, Bob Harkins, Joseph Cope, Coach Mark Richardson. Middle: Julian Hamilton, Brent Branham, Chad Mobley, Trey Fletcher, Tyler Porter. Front: Michael Anderson, Heath Caldwell. N.P.: Philip Wilkins

VARSITY SCORES:

26	Greenwood	1	11	Newberry	5
8	Calhoun	5	2	King	1
21	Bethune	1	3	Heathwood	5
10	Newberry	0	7	Thornwell	5
2	W. Hall	6	17	King	9
4	T. Sumter	10	22	Greenwood	1
15	Cola. High	6	10	C. Newman	3
12	F. Central	2	*8	Carolina	2
8	W. Hall	9	*4	Col. Prep	3
4	Calhoun	10	*1	Avalon	4
9	Thornwell	4	*3	Col. Prep	4
				Record: 15 - 7
				* Denotes Play-offs

JV SCORES:

13	Greenwood	0	1	Thornwell	6
6	Heathwood	9	4	W. Hall	10
12	W. Hall	7	4	Heathwood	4
3	Penn. JV	14	14	Thornwell	9
4	Chester	11	6	King	9
				Record: 3 - 7

1997 J.V. BASEBALL TEAM. Kneeling (L-R): Michael Lippert, Philip Wilkins, Keith Carter, Russ Brown. Standing: Coach Billy Keels, Locke Frazier, Jake Gaston, Trim Cope, Kevin McDaniel, Stuart Edwards, Gill Harkins. Not Pictured: Kevin Brazell

READY TO RELEASE. Junior Varsity player Trim Cope winds up to pitch another stike while shortstop Keith Carter anticipates the next play. Although the JV's didn't win very many games, they all gained valuable experience.

QUICK FLIP. Sophomore Brent Branham tosses the ball to first to get a third out. At second base, Brent was solid; rarely letting any balls past him.

