

Together Till the End

POISED AND READY. Most Valuable Player Caroline Carter, concentrates on pitching a strike. Caroline returned to the team this year after missing two years because of knee problems.

OUTFIELD RULES! After catching a pop fly in left field, Coleman Startsman throws it to shortstop Frances Ladd. Coleman's outfield abilities proved to be a valuable asset to the Lady Eagles.

HITS AND RUNS! The Eagles huddle together for some quick hitting instructions. These little talks proved to be very successful as the Lady Eagles averaged 12 hits per game.

GONE WITH THE WIND. Junior Lindsey Bonds loses her helmet on her way to score another run for the Eagles. Lindsey's speed contributed greatly to the team while on base or in right center.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT. Katherine Brown tosses tennis balls to Kimberly Weed during a hitting practice before a home game against King. Their hard work payed off as the Eagles beat their conference rival 12 to 7.

SENIOR SUPERIORITY. Senior Caroline Wilkins is hugged by Jennifer Atkerson and Kimberly Weed. During the last game, Caroline, along with two other seniors, was recognized and given balloons and an autographed ball.
