

AWESOME EFFORT. Head Coach Gary Drapeau gives the girls words of consolation after their loss to King in the State Play-offs. Although they did not reach the finals, the team had an outstanding season with a 14 and 7 record.

DOWN N- DIRTY. Senior catcher Martha Stevenson keeps her eyes on the ball as it is hurled from the pitcher's mound. Martha has been a member of the softball team for six years and has continually been a valuable asset.

POWER HITTER! Freshman Reid Patrick shows her strength as she hits the ball down the line for a double against Calhoun Academy. Leading off the lineup, Reid always came through with a good solid hit to begin the game.

NEVER STOP SMILING. Caroline Wilkins, Martha Stevenson, and Caroline Carter still manage to smile after losing to King. Throughout the years these seniors have been leaders on the field, and will be missed by their teammates.

A FINAL FAREWELL. Underclassmen Jennifer Atkerson and Kimberly Weed give senior Caroline Wilkins a farewell hug before the final game. The entire softball team presented them with autographed softballs and balloons.

STRIKE ONE! Wendy Gwynn pitches the ball with accuracy while Caroline Carter anxiously awaits the play to unfold. Because of their versatile abilities, Wendy and Caroline were able to switch positions from game to game.

DOING HIS PART. Assistant coach Billy Carter "directs traffic" from his position at third. Besides coaching, Coach Carter spent much of his time working on the field.

