

Rounding the Bases

HEAD, SHOULDERS, KNEES, AND TOES. With hands on knees, shortstop Jenni Caldwell and left fielder Callie Ladd talk it up during a home game. These two girls were both honored with awards at the 1997 Athletic Banquet.

CAN I GET A RIP? Subfreshman Allyson Hollis gets a rip in a game against Heathwood Hall. Allyson's attitude and hard work earned her a slot on the J.V. team.

DIFFERENT POINT OF VIEW. Seeing everything from a different perspective, Kerri Varnadore gets set for the pitch. Kerri's solid play behind the plate set the tone for the Eagles' defense.

ON THE BASE AGAIN ... Emily Mills, an eighth grader, intensely watches the pitch to her teammate before she hustles to second base. Emily greatly contributed to both J.V. and Varsity teams during the season.

THE WIND-UP & DELIVERY. Seventh grader Mary Startzman concentrates on her pitching, while second baseman Rebecca Harwood awaits the hit. Because of their versatility, Mary and Rebecca alternated positions from game to game.
