

Raising A

WATCH OUT! Sophomore J.T. Crossland's forehand is too hard for his opponent to handle! J.T. returned to the team this season after having played for the Eagles last year.

UMPH! B.J. Freeman, a junior, controls the game with his powerful backhand. B.J.'s tennis strokes have vastly improved over the number of years he has been a member of the team.

WHAT A SHOT! Parker Gaddy's backhand helped him have a winning season this year. As one of the youngest players on the team, Parker's natural athletic abilities made him a valuable member of the squad.

AD-IN! Getting a bounce or two in before the toss, B.J. concentrates as he begins his serve routine. B.J. has been focused on improving his tennis skills throughout the season.
