

"A" IS FOR APPLE ... As the five year old kindergarten sings about the alphabet, each child holds an example of something that starts with their assigned letter. This annual program concludes with the students receiving kindergarten diplomas and awards.

"IF I WERE A RICH MAN" ... J.T. Crossland, soloist, sings a favorite from the musical "Fiddler on the Roof". J.T., as usual, did an outstanding job entertaining the crowd with his voice, costume, and acting ability.

TAND TALL FOR S.C. This year the third grade program centered around a travel agency, with student narrators telling the audience about the story and beautiful sights of our home state. The students also had their state scrapbooks on display.

SOLDIERS OF YESTERYEAR. While fifth graders Andrew Kinard, Roe Coleman, and Blair Clarkson model their soldier uniforms, the rest of the class waits patiently as Blair narrates and they prepare to sing once more. This patriotic group dressed in various costumes reflecting the history of our nation.
