

THEY CONQUERED!

MAKE ME SMILE! It seems that Lynly Ehrlich doesn't need much other than a big hug from classmate Kim Brice to give her a reason to be happy. With graduation now behind them, these grads celebrated their accomplishments!

YES, WE MADE IT! Now officially RWA "alums", a tearfully happy Caroline Wilkins hugs an equally happy friend and fellow classmate, Bob Harkins. The two congratulated one another on their successes while students at RWA.

GOOD LUCK GRADUATES

DADDY'S LITTLE GIRL. Even though Caroline has received her high school degree, she still listens attentively to her daddy's advice. Like the others, Caroline was ready to celebrate this happy occasion with friends & family.

THE FINAL STEPS. Taking their last steps in the spotlight as RWA's newly graduated Class of 1997, these students are armed with a good education. They now begin the next phase of their lives in the "real" world.

FRIENDS TO THE END! Happy, eager, and a wee bit nervous, Robin, Martha, and Brady pose for a photo as they anticipate the big event. Prior to receiving their diplomas, the seniors gathered in the Fine Arts room to get ready.
