

BUNDLED UP. Blair and Boyd bundle up for the chilly weather as they watch the homecoming game and half-time festivities. These guys participated in many of the spirit-filled activities.

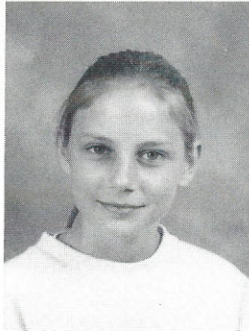

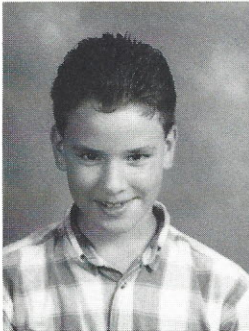

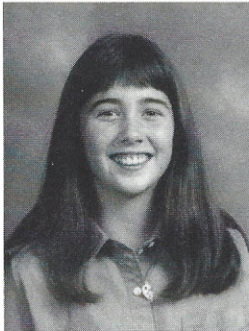

SIXTH GRADE

HEY DUDE! Hiding behind those cool shades while wearing his favorite top hat, Ryan Broom is proud to be an Eagle fan. Most students loved the various dress-up days during the homecoming week.

MATCHED SETS. These sets of "twins" are just a few of the many dressing up in matching attire for the day. Although the real number of legitimate twins is small, lots of students had fun pretending.

What makes you scream?

"Hanson makes me scream because they sing odd little songs like MmmBop!" — Gillian Simms

"The things that make me scream are the Spice Girl's shoes because they are a foot high." —Boyd Brown

"Creepy, crawly, slimy, bugs make me scream because they are very disgusting and icky. Yuck!" — Lindsey Hamilton
