What inspired you to enter the teaching profession and what is your reward?

"I love little children. My reward is at the end of each year when after I've spoiled my 3 yr. olds, I get to send them to Mrs. Martin." — Ann Lutz

"I was influenced to teach because my mother was one, and I enjoyed being around young children. My reward is that I may have a positive influence on a child's life." — Martha Martin

"We needed a teacher for our children while living in South America so we prayed for one and God said, 'You are to do it.' My reward is seeing the joy learning gives." — Pam Rambo
