

GETTING THE JOB DONE. Mrs. Arnette looks up for a moment from the work she is busy handling. She does various jobs in the office to help Mrs. Young with such a heavy workload.

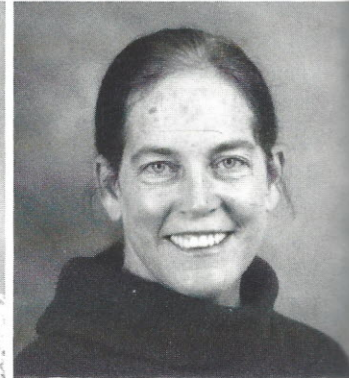

WORKING WOMAN. Mrs. Carolyn Miller makes change for a student in the canteen. Her tireless dedication to such a thankless job is appreciated by the entire student body.

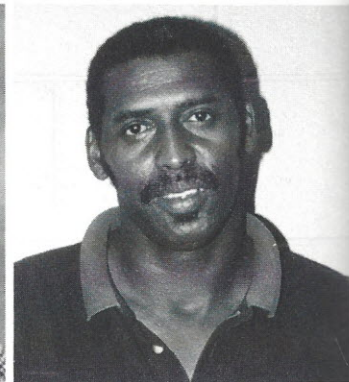

Mrs. Dianne Arnette
receptionist
Mrs. Lea Weed
middle school instructor
Mrs. Laurens Livings
lower school music

Mrs. Cheri Burroughs
dietician
Mrs. Carolyn Miller
dietician
Mrs. Judi Montgomery
dietician

Mrs. Erin Branham day care
Mrs. Linda Burr
day care
Mr. Lonzelle Robinson
custodian

"Aptitude tests said that I'd do well in brick laying and I decided teaching would fit that category because I could 'lay a foundation' for the future." — Vicki Robinson

"I've always wanted to teach because various people made it look like meaningful work and I wanted to be a part of that. My reward is seeing 'the light come on'." — Ellen Nicholson

"I wanted to be a high school football coach and teaching was the only way! My reward is helping a student become a productive citizen, family member, and Christian!" — Dennis Stokes

"When a student at R.W.A., I decided to become a teacher because of the wonderful teachers I had. They made learning fun and so I decided I wanted to do the same." — Heather Driggers