

LET'S GO! Freshman Kerri Varnadore, Nina Bedenbaugh, and Jenni Caldwell show their cheering ability with their stiff ending to this cheer. This was just one of the many "little things" cheerleaders have to do to look good.

HALFTIME! The JV cheerleaders dismount from their pyramid which is a big part of their routine. The cheerleaders practiced hard to perfect these routines.

WHAT DO YOU LIKE MOST ABOUT BEING A CHEERLEADER?

I like being with my friends. Most of all I just like having fun, and learning new cheers and dances. — Ashley Arnette

I like being a cheerleader because it shows how much spirit you have and how much pride you have in your school." — Jenni Caldwell

"I like cheering because I get to cheer my team to victory, get out of school early for games, and cheer with my friends!" — Jeni-Bruce Wilkes

"I like getting psyched up on the way to the game and the suspense near the end of a close game." — Ashlyn Tanner

What I like most about being a cheerleader is getting out there and supporting our football team. — Nina Bedenbaugh

"I liked being a cheerleader because wearing our school colors shows our pride. It's a great experience and I really loved it." — Kristen Keroson

"What I like about cheering is not having to worry what I'm going to be wearing on game days and being with my friends." — Rebecca Harwood

"The best thing I like about being a cheerleader is that I can wear short skirts and cheer for our school." — Mary Startzman

"Traveling ... We get to meet new people and we just have a great time doing stuff and going places together." — Kerri Varnadore

"I like the dances and cheers, also the high kicks and cute boys." — Brittany Melvin

"What I like about cheering is being with friends and cheering the team on." — Allyson Hollis

"I like being able to travel and having fun with everybody on the squad." — Elizabeth Schachner

READY? OKAY! The cheerleaders prepare to start a cheer to the crowd to get them fired up. One of the main goals of cheerleaders was to get the crowd involved.

WE WANT SIX! The cheerleaders do a cheer to encourage the football players to strive for a touchdown. The cheerleaders like the players, did an excellent job this season.