

HOME FREE! Eighth grader Callie Ladd crosses home plate after a teammate hits the ball to the outfield while allowing Callie to score from third. Callie usually played in an outfield position on defense.

EYE ON THE BALL. As freshman Ashley Thompson watches the arched pitch coming toward the plate, she pulls the bat back with the intention of walloping the ball for a big hit. Ashley played first base on the j.v. squad.

J.V. Girls Chalk Up Another

WINNING SEASON

DOING IT RIGHT! Third baseman Mary Startzman fields the grounder and throws to second baseman Kristen Keroson covering the bag. These two players put a halt to the Lee runner's advance around the bases.

READY AND WAITING. Sophomore Candace Oxner watches the action closely as she prepares to run the next ground ball. Although it was her rookie softball season, she was a valuable member of the team as catcher.