LIKE FATHER...LIKE SON. After many weeks of preparation, Head Coach Dennis Stokes and Assistant Kip Stokes anxiously await the first kick-off of the season. Under this new coaching staff, the 1997 Eagles gained valuable experience and knowledge while having fun at the same time.

DEFENSE. Lineman Tanner Pope and Matt Wagaman take control by passing their opponents and going for the sack on H.H.P.'s quarterback. Together these two played important roles in the Eagles' defensive attack.
