SAFE! Reid Patrick reaches second as she looks for signals from the third base coach. Reid, a veteran player, often came through for the team with important hits and was an anchor at the first base positon on de-

STRIKE! Wendy Gwynn pitches one high and inside against a Wardlaw batter. Wendy's versatility as a pitcher allowed her to adjust to different situations with control.

another one up the middle. Al-though only a sub-freshman, Mor-gan displayed talent batting as well as on the field defensively.

CHARGE! Kayla Isenhower rushes forward and prepares for an oncom-ing ground ball. Although a newcomer to Lady Eagles softball, Kayla prior softball experience made her a valuable member of the team.

HUSTLE! Katherine Brown scores a run for the Eagles in the home game against Cardinal Newman. Katherine also added depth to the team as the starting third baseman.

