

GOING FOR PAR. Sophomore Willy Pope exhibits his putting style as he tries to sink the long putt. Willy's natural athletic ability proved to make him an excellent golfer and valuable member of the team.

GONE WITH THE WIND. Freshman Edmund Yongue shows off his swing as well as his determination. As a second year golf participant, Edmund's game saw lots of improvement through the season.

PUTTING FOR GLORY. Senior Brad Caulder displays his putting form as he finishes up on the number nine green. Brad chose to end his senior year at RWA as rookie member of the golf team.

PEP IT UP! Coach Mike Robinson gives his players some pre-match tips and announces the match-up of the top six participants. Coach Robinson was often seen playing a round or two himself whenever his schedule permitted.

EYE OF AN EAGLE! Matt Gilreath, a freshman, takes his golf game seriously as he concentrates on making his putt. Like many of the other team members, Matt spent lots of the summer vacation time out on a golf course.

