

HIPPIE/TACKY DAY ...
WIN DAY ... CAMOU-
LAGE DAY ... HAT/COL-
LEGE DAY ... BLUE &
OLD DAY!

TWINS "R" AWESOME! These third graders enjoy the chance to mirror a classmate for the day as they eagerly participate in Twin Day. Although none of them was actually blood-related, it was a fun day to pretend anyway.

GO GAMECOCKS! Senior Dennis Wilson shows his loyalty to the Gamecocks on Hat/College Day as he dons garnet and black from head to toe. Many students looked forward to this "dress up" day so they could wear a hat in school.

HUNTING? As these seniors gather around the table during homeroom, they are probably discussing what they will "hunt" for lunch that day. Since Fairfield County is noted for its duck hunting, most students didn't have a difficult time rounding up the proper attire for this BLUE & GOLD FOREVER! J.T. Crossland, a junior, never fails to show his school spirit during homecoming Spirit Week. J.T. managed to "come through" again this year with another of the most unique costumes that reflects his originality and pride in RWA.

PEACE, BROTHER! Junior Jim Edwards goes back in time to the 60's when bell bottoms, beads, head bands, and peace symbols were familiar sights of the hippie era. Several students were also brave enough to deliberately dress "tacky" for this day despite the stares and comments from classmates.
