

BREAKIN' LOOSE. Sophomore Wendy Gwynn fights to break loose from Mary Startzman's strong hold. The girls took this game seriously, while still having fun, and went all out to prove that girls can play rough, too.

DETERMINATION! Finding a hole through the MITES defense, Frances Ladd runs with determination to escape Reid Patrick's reach. Despite the lack of practice time and organization of the event, fun was had by all.

TURNING IT LOOSE. After cutting around the left side of the line, Hannah Phillips turns on her speed to race to the endzone for the only TD scored. The TICKS repeated the same play for the two point conversion.

RUN, SALLY, RUN! Not to be outdone by the opposing TICKS, the MITES had a running game equally as speedy in Sally Hinnant. Although teammate Wendy Gwynn blocked well for Sally, the TICKS were able to stop Sally.

HEADS OR TAILS? Coaches Dennis Stokes and Kip Stokes, officials for the game, meet with the senior captains prior to kickoff for the flip of the coin. The TICKS won the toss and elected to receive the ball first.

FIRING IT OFF. MITES quarterback Reid Patrick lets the ball fly as she attempts to complete a pass to her receiver. Despite Reid's tallness and athletic abilities, the TICKS were usually able to break up her passes.
