

Outstanding Athletes

Bring home 9 trophies and 50 individual awards

S.H. AWARD. Standing between speaker Laurie James and Mrs. Barbara Harmon, recipients Lindsey Bonds and Brad Caulder pose with their trophies. Since it was the 20th year of giving the award, two seniors were honored.

SCHOLASTIC ATHLETIC AWARDS. Senior Chris Spires and Junior Sally Hinnant are honored for having the highest GPA. Chris and Sally are prime examples of RWA students that excel academically as well as athletically.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR Mike Robison, acting as the m.c. for the evening gives instructions to the crowd as to how to line up in the food lines. After eating, the evening of award presentations rolled along smoothly.

FREE THROW AWARDS. Senior Lindsey Bonds and sophomore Kyle Stokes receive the award for highest free throw percentage. On the line Lindsey was 67 percent while Kyle shot 72 percent.

CHEERLEADING. JV Cheerleader Jenni Caldwell and V Cheerleader Courtney Melton are awarded plaques for being captains for their squads throughout the football season. Their hard work and dedication was much appreciated.

TENNIS. Blair Feaster — MVP, All-Region; Jen Robinson — "ACE" Award, All-Region; Coleman Startzman — All-Region; Kerri Varnadore — MIP, All-Region; Katherine Brown — Eagle, All-Region; Clarke Doty — All-Region.

VARSITY FOOTBALL. Marshall Goode — Most Valuable Def. Back, All-Region; Tanner Pope — MVP, Most Outstanding Lineman, All-Region; Tyler Porter — Most Outstanding Off. Back, All-Region; Matthew Wilkes — Most Outstanding Lineman, All-Region; Martin Timms — Eagle; NOT PICTURED: Matt Wagaman — All-Region.

