

"HOLDING ON, REACHING OUT, LETTING GO!" Class Valedictorian Susan Martin gives her commencement address with great emotion! Susan worked very hard all through her high school years to earn this number one spot.

ALMOST THERE! Tanner Pope and Marshall Goode talk to Mr. Deane Fowble and Dr. Phil Wilkins before the commencement exercises to calm their nerves. Their talk assured Marshall and Tanner that everything would run smoothly.

THE HEAD HONCHOS! Ms. Beth Reid, Mr. Deane Fowble, and Dr. Phil Wilkins closely watch Chris Spire's slide show. Although the administration was new, they did an excellent job of organizing the ceremony.

ONE LAST TIME. The senior chorus members join the others in singing "Like an Eagle" and "Friends Forever." This was a very emotional moment for those seniors because it was their last time to sing in chorus.

LAST, BUT NOT LEAST! Melissa Young waits nervously for her turn to take the long walk. Following the other 32 grads gave her time to calm the "butterflies" as she patiently watched.
