

Loretta-

From your very beginning you have brought happiness in our lives. As you have grown and matured you have given unselfishly to those around you. We're very proud of the fine young lady you have become and wish you the best in the years ahead. Remember to keep God first in your life and you'll always be a winner.

We love you!

Dad, Mom, Mike, Lee, Jamie, Ashlee, and Chuck

Nicky,

I wish you happiness, security, and wisdom but not yet. Get the adventures in first.

I wish you the passion that creates and pray that the passion that destroys passes you by.

I pray that you will find what you want to do and do it. Well!

I wish you the beauty of silence, the glory of sunlight, the sweetness of air, and the love that lies at the very root of all things. I wish you the wonder of living.

What do I wish for you as you graduate from high school? A belief in the fundamental worth of humankind, and that, Noodle, includes yourself.

Reach for the stars and when you've caught your star hang on to it.

I wish you love. Romance, yes, but, too, a love that is guided by God's love.

I wish for you the reaching up of a child's arm, the sticky-kisses. The reassuring touches, the lighting up of your eyes, the sound of a key in the lock you call home.

I wish you a daughter just like you! Congratulations!

I love you!

Mom
