

J.V.'S RISE TO THE OCCASION

TIP OFF. Number 15, Naomi Berzley goes head-to-head with a Greenwood Christian opponent. Even though Naomi lost this tip, her dominating height added to the overall advantage of the Eagles.

DRIBBLE, DRIBBLE ... Point guard Britany Foster easily dribbles past the Cambridge Cougar defense. Britany's speed and agility helped the Eagles pull ahead and beat the Cougars.

LEADING THE PACK. Freshman Hannah Phillips adds two more points to the Eagles' score with a layup. Hannah provided valuable leadership and experience to this year's J.V. team.

SWOOSH! From the charity stripe, Callie Ladd carefully lines up her free-throw shot. Callie proved to be a reliable free-throw shooter for the Eagles, especially during the close games.

"HUDDLE UP LADIES." Head coach Joe Spires calls a time-out to let the J.V. Eagles catch their breath. Joe's daughter, former RWA standout Ashlee Spires coached under her father as his assistant.
