

SANDBLASTER! Junior Willy Pope watches his ball roll into the cup after having to chip it out of the sand. Because of Willy's great attitude, he received the Eagle Award at the Athletic Banquet.

PUTTING FOR PAR. Seventh grader Brock Williams concentrates as he tries to put for par. In his first year on the team, Brock's natural golf skills enabled him to play as one of the top 6 golfers.

CHIPPING FOR THE GREEN! Matt Gilreath shows his form as he chips his ball out of the sand. Matt's golfing ability greatly enhanced the team's success and he was awarded All-Region honors.

TIME-OUT. The Eagle golf team takes time-out to pose for a picture after playing in the tournament at Fripp Island. The guys played hard, but mostly just had fun during the tournament.

EAGERLY WAITING. Teammates Ward Coleman and Edmund Yongue wait for their time to tee off as Ryan Johnson takes his turn. Waiting for their turn to play, players often discussed their strategies.

