

STRIKING UP ANOTHER SEASON

STRIKE. Eighth grader Josh Peake releases a strike against Timmerman. The Eagles not only captured the victory in game one, but beat the Owls again in the second game of the double header.

WORKING OVERTIME. Freshman Kevin McDaniel goes through his motion as he hurls another pitch. Kevin did double duty serving as a pitcher for the J.V. team and the catcher for the varsity.

AT EASE. Left-fielder Sam Arnette chats with center-fielder Zack McCorkle as they wait during a pitching change. These two freshmen, along with a few others, played on the j.v. and varsity teams.

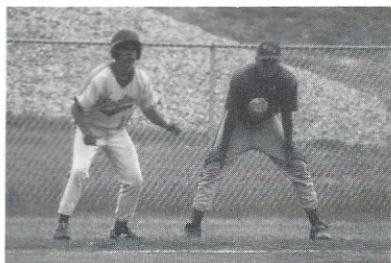

BEHIND THE PLATE. Freshman B.J. Mattox frames the pitch for the umpire to clearly see that it was a strike. B.J.'s tough play at the catcher position was a key to the j.v.'s success.

DOUBLE O. In hopes of getting a hit, freshman Wylie Clarkson prepares for the next pitch. The Eagles spent much time during practice in the batting cages working on their batting techniques.

RIP. Mac Caldwell watches as his hit goes straight through the gap between shortstop and third base. Although this was Mac's first year on the team, he was one of the leaders offensively.

POISED & READY. With a lead off third base, eighth grader Josh Allen and coach Billy Keels closely watch the pitcher. The Eagles's smart base running helped them to put runs on the scoreboard.
